

1629.250

January 23, 1929

Dearest Louise,

We both enjoyed your letter as usual, and we are glad you are making headway with your work. We do hope you finish your subjects in good shape before the new semester.

Tomorrow is the last day of school work this semester as exams commence Friday. It is the last day I have these pupils. I am sorry for I have become very fond of them and dread getting acquainted with new names and personalities. Our Commencement is a week from tomorrow night.

Susan Munson visited with us from last Friday to yesterday. Mother said she was homesome today. Susan has been in Scranton since Thanksgiving and intends to remain here until the winter is over. She boards with a friend in Hyde Park.

I have received two letters within the past week from Maude. She and her husband have returned to Provo, Nevada. You know, they bought a place in Seattle this fall. That they have sold and have gone back to the Ranch.

We have been reading L. L. Van Dine's